

International Friends

Connecting International Students with Families in the Community

- Students who complete this form will be matched with a local family.
- Your form will be given to community volunteers (outside of Illinois State University) who coordinate the International Friends program.
- By completing this form and signing your name, you are giving permission to the International Studies Office to give the personal information you have provided below to International Friends volunteers.
- You are not required to participate in International Friends; it is voluntary. This means that it is your choice to request a family or not.
- If you DO wish to participate, please sign your name, print your name, and write the date below:

I wish to become matched with an American family. I give the Office of International Studies and Programs permission to share this form with community volunteers in the International Friends program:
